(Flint, Michigan)— Flint Bishop Airport is hosting a full-scale DRILL alongside several community organizations next week. The triennial “Live Disaster Exercise” on May 10th at 9:00 a.m. is training conducted by FNT’s Public Safety Team to better prepare for a potential “real life” scenario. The community and nearby residents will see extra mutual aid emergency personal and vehicles around the airport during the exercise.

The drill lead by our Public Safety department includes the following agencies: the American Red Cross; local Fire Departments; area Police Departments; County Paramedics; area Ambulances and Hospitals; Emergency Response Organizations and Agencies; Genesee County Emergency Management; MTA; the Civil Air Patrol, FAA, airline and airport employees.

“Safety and security of our passengers and employees is our top priority. Our Public Safety Department is always training but this triennial exercise puts our training to the test,” said Nino Sapone, CEO, Flint Bishop Airport. “We can’t thank our community partners and mutual aid agencies enough for the way they support Bishop Airport. In the event of a full-scale disaster, we will need their help and we know we can rely on them.”

The full-scale exercise is the most comprehensive test and is intended to evaluate the operational capability of the emergency management system in a stress environment with actual mobilization and deployment to demonstrate coordination and response capability. It uses all resources and requires reaction from equipment and personnel that would normally be available if the exercise were an actual emergency. The FAA requires a full-scale airport emergency plan exercise at least every thirty-six calendar months.

All agencies will be pre-staged for this event. This exercise will include the transportation of volunteer “victims” to each of our area hospitals for “treatment”. We do invite the media to be a part of the drill.
