(Flint, Michigan)— Flint Bishop Airport is set to host Michigan’s first all-female honor flight. More than 70 veterans will depart from FNT on June 11th for Washington D.C. to visit the memorials built in their honor.

“It’s a privilege to host the first flight of its kind in Michigan,” said Nino Sapone, CEO at Flint Bishop Airport. “We are grateful for their service and we look forward to being a part of their journey.”

Honor Flights are an opportunity to thank Americans who fought for our country by bringing them to the nation’s capital to see the memorials that commemorate their service. This will be the second honor flight hosted at Flint Bishop. Last September, FNT welcomed more than 70 veterans who served during World War II, the Korean and Vietnam Wars.

The flight departs Flint Bishop at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, June 11th and returns the following day at 8:28 p.m. Veterans and their guardians will be met by well-wishers, the Patriot Guard Riders and many more at their upon their return at FNT.

Flint Bishop International Airport (FNT) is “Not the only way to fly. Just a better one”. Flint guarantees you all of the destination options of a larger airport, while flying from the comfort of a relaxing and beautiful facility. Flint features all-jet service, with flights provided by Allegiant, American, and United. Our airlines provide many nonstop flights to popular destinations across the country that will also connect you around the world, usually in one stop or less.
